

ASSET MANAGEMENT

The Faculty of Accounting and Informatics from the Durban University has embarked on a project with a company called Naidu Consulting to develop and deploy software solutions to asset management. Naidu Consulting provided the required National Treasury specifications for delivering the project. Process Maker was used to develop the software. The research for this collaborative project is part of a PhD.